Yorozu was certified as an Excellent Enterprise for Health and Productivity Management (Large Enterprise Category) for six years straight. *

In addition, Yorozu Service Corporation was certified for the first time as an Excellent Enterprise for Health and Productivity Management (Small- and Medium-sized Enterprise Category—Bright 500).

* Effective April 1, 2026, Yorozu Corporation (the Company) implemented an absorption-type merger with its wholly owned domestic subsidiaries. As a result, the Company and all of its sites in Japan, except for Yorozu Service Corporation, were recognized as an Excellent Enterprise for Health and Productivity Management 2026 in the Large Enterprise Category.

The Excellent Enterprise for Health and Productivity Management recognition system is a program that awards excellent large enterprises and small- to medium-sized companies that excel in implementing health management activities tailored to the local health issues and the health promotion initiatives conducted by the Nippon Kenko Kaigi.

The Company issued its Health Management Declaration in October 2019 and has since been working to improve employee health in collaboration with the health insurance society.

Health Management Declaration

Aiming for a healthy and rewarding workplace, the Yorozu Group hereby declares that it will work to create a company where each and every employee can continue to work in good health and with a smile on their face.
